

Innovation Pedagogy

Workshop Series for Educators

Part of the RUN InnoBoost Open Access BootCamps

Starts 7 October 2025 Online & In-Person

This dynamic workshop series is designed for educators who want to bring innovation and entrepreneurship into the classroom. As part of the wider RUN InnoBoost BootCamps, the sessions equip you with practical tools and real-world methods to embed entrepreneurial learning in your teaching and collaborate with industry.

You will learn how to:

- Apply innovation pedagogy in theory and practice
- Coach multidisciplinary student teams to create sustainable, impactful solutions
- Use a rich toolbox of design-based methods, templates, and ideas
- Assess and develop innovation competencies using research-based tools
- Build strong partnerships with companies and organisations to drive regional growth

Schedule (10:00–12:00 CET)

7 th Oct 2025	Nurturing & Assessing Innovation Competencies (hosted by TUS, Howest, HAMK) (online)
23 rd Oct 2025	Methods & Creative Techniques for Supporting Innovation (hosted by FHV) (online)
5 th Nov 2025	Linking Innovation to Business Objectives (hosted by Howest, FHV, NHL Stenden)
19 th Nov 2025	Multidisciplinary in Innovation Pedagogy (hosted by HAMK, in-person at RUN-EU Superweek, Finland)
8 th Dec 2025	Building Worklife Co-operation for Innovation (hosted by NHL Stenden, FHV)

Register here by 6th October. - spaces are limited!

These BootCamps give you tested frameworks, international networks, and practical tools to embed innovation where it matters most. Book now - that link again is <https://forms.office.com/e/gTnCXfyJyB> and benefit from applied, research-based workshops designed to strengthen your academic practice and regional impact.

Supported by

